

Ed Joiner

I have been a resident of Rosebud County for the past 25 years. I've been married to my wife Stacie for 22 years. Prior to becoming a Commissioner I was the Disaster and Emergency Services coordinator for the Northern Cheyenne Tribe. I am also an active member on several volunteer Fire Departments for over 30 years and teach Hunter's Education classes in Lame Deer.

I attended and graduated from Northern Montana College in Havre. I started my term as a Rosebud County Commissioner in January 2013.
